

RELEASED FROM JAIL, MAN IS REARRESTED

Police Here Holding Robert Moynihan, Alleged Sneak Thief.

Robert Moynihan, 21 years old, of Syracuse, was arrested by Buffalo detectives last evening as he stepped from the Niagara county jail at Lockport. He was brought to Buffalo where, the authorities say, they believe he was responsible for a score of clever sneak thefts. The specific charge against him is stealing $500 from the safe of Deckop brothers, 35 Goodrich street, in 1921. He has admitted the theft, the police say.

Last year he was arrested for stealing a sum of money from a Niagara Falls store and upon conviction was sentenced to eight months in the county jail. When he was released yesterday Buffalo detectives were awaiting him.

Moynihan, according to police, while here put up at a Main street hotel, spent money freely and was well dressed and prosperous.
