

The Baldwinsville Gazette AND FARMERS' JOURNAL.

A decorative woodcut-style illustration of a farm scene. In the center is a large, leafy tree. To the left of the tree are several stalks of grain, possibly corn or wheat. To the right of the tree are various farming tools, including a pitchfork, a shovel, and a hoe, along with some scattered hay or straw. The entire scene is framed by a horizontal line.

BALDWINVILLE, ONONDAGA CO., N. Y., FEBRUARY 9, 1888.

—Mr. John McCarthy has a little son added to his family.