

Syracuse Herald
Friday August 11 1921

Cruel to Calf; Fined $5—Cornellus McCarthy, farmer living near Baldwinsville, was fined $5 for cruelty to animals today by the justice of the peace. He was arrested by State Trooper Silvegnall for haying in his wagon a calf whose four legs were tied together so that the animal was doubled up almost in a knot.